Become a Synchro Coach

Swim England in conjunction with the North West Region have put together an opportunity for any aspiring swimmers who would like to become the next generation of coaches. The Institute of Swimming have recently arranged for a Synchro RPL (Recognized Prior Learning) for level 1 with the criteria that the candidate can then book onto Swim England North West Level 2 course later in the year. If you would like to find out more information or apply please see attached link. The RPL window however is only open for a limited time until 28/2/19. For more information on the level 2 Synchro Coaching course please see below.

Blended Learning Level 2 Synchro Coach

Start of online learning: 28th June 2019

Face to face dates: 3rd, 4th, 17th, 18th August 2019, 8.30am – 6.30pm

Venue:- Irlam Lesiure Centre, Irlam

There is funding available following completion of the Level 2 Synchro Coach through the Region for a 50% Coaching Bursary. Please see attached link. There is no funding available for the RPL.

Have your Say on Synchro in the North West Region

You are invited to meet the Swim England Synchro Management team to hear how the group supports synchro across the North West Region and what the future could look like. We want to hear what you as a member of a Swim England affiliated synchro club views are and what support we can give to our clubs. The event is free of charge with an opportunity to network over lunch. Please come along and support this event to hear how the National, Regional and County Synchro pathways are structured and what part you can play in this.

Date:-24th February 2019
